Panel Descriptions

Dimensions

- Accessories Dimensions: 400 (W) x 260 (D) x 65 (H) mm
- Power Supply: 15-3/4 (W) x 10-1/4 (D) x 2-9/16 (H) inches

Controller Explanation

- INST PLAY button
- SELECT button
- INST PLAY button
- TIME knob
- TUNE knob
- START/STOP button
- INST select button
- TR-REC button
- PAD [1]–[15]

Mode Explanation

- SCATTER knob: Determines the sound's positioning in the stereo field.
- PAD [1]–[11]: Drama Rolls on the pads corresponding to the drum kit selected.
- PAD [12]–[15]: Pads for the rhythms
- PAD [16]: Mute

Connecting Your Equipment

- DC IN jack: Connect your power supply to this jack.
- ASSIGNABLE OUT (A, B) jacks: Connect these jacks to your amp or monitor speakers. If your system is monaural, use only the L/MONO jack.

Setting the length of the reverb/delay

- SCATTER knob: Determines the sound's positioning in the stereo field.

Changing Kits/Instruments

- INST select buttons: Selects the sound (tone) for an instrument.
- KIT button: Selects the sound (tone) for an instrument.
- [TR-REC] button: Lets you realtime-record a pattern.
- [START/STOP] button: Starts and stops the pattern.
- [PAD [1]–[16]]: Selects the pads.

Synchronizing/Recoding with Other Devices

- Connecting the TR-8 to your computer via USB: You can synchronize the TR-8 with a TB-3 by using a commercially available USB cable to connect the TR-8 to your computer. You can synchronize the TR-8 with your DAW via USB, or record individual instruments of the TR-8 onto tracks of your DAW via USB audio.

Various Settings

- Restoring the Factory Settings: If you have changed the settings, you can restore them to their factory defaults.
  1. Press the [INST REC] button while holding the [CLEAR] button.
  2. Press the [START/STOP] button to execute the factory reset.
  3. The settings are saved, and the TR-8 restarts.

Synchronizing/Recoding with Other Devices

- Connecting the TR-8 to your computer via USB: You can synchronize the TR-8 with a TB-3 by using a commercially available USB cable to connect the TR-8 to your computer. You can synchronize the TR-8 with your DAW via USB, or record individual instruments of the TR-8 onto tracks of your DAW via USB audio.

Main Specifications

- Power Supply: 120V~ / 4.5V DC (8V to 18V input range)
- Dimensions: 400 (W) x 260 (D) x 65 (H) mm
- Weight: 1.5 kg

Thank you for choosing Roland!

Before using this unit, carefully read the leaflet “USING THE UNIT SAFELY.” The leaflet provides important information concerning the proper operation of this unit. Additionally, in order to assure you get the maximum benefit from your new product, please read the owner's manual.